Workshop overview

Voyage into the past in our Discover: Viking North workshop! Explore the museum and handle real objects from our collections to uncover the lives of Viking warriors, traders and craftsmen in the north of England. Afterwards, try your hand at a popular Viking board game or create your own piece of Scandinavian jewellery.

Location

The Yorkshire Museum
Museum Gardens
Museum Street
York
YO1 7FR

Workshop times

10am–12pm or 12.30–2.30pm.

Age group

Key Stage Two.

Numbers

Maximum group size of 34 pupils per workshop.

We can accommodate up to two groups from your school on a single day, with a maximum of 30 pupils per workshop (60 pupils in total).

Session fees

£7 per pupil. For groups of 22 or less, there is a flat fee of £154 per workshop.

This includes entry to the Yorkshire Museum should you wish to make a self-guided visit before or after your workshop.

What to expect

During this session, pupils will:

- Explore our Viking North exhibition by completing two discovery challenges. These will give pupils an insight into the north of England's connections to the wider Viking world and the everyday lives of Viking warriors, traders and craftsmen.
- Get hands-on with real Viking artefacts using one of our Viking object boxes. These will shed light on life in a Viking Great Army camp (Life in the Viking Great Army) or the livelihoods and beliefs of those Vikings who lived in the north of England (Life in the Danelaw).

- Learn through play by learning the rules to a popular Viking board game (Hnefatafl) or by creating your own Scandinavian brooch using clay (Jellinge style jewellery).

Our Discover: Viking North workshop is led by an expert member of our Learning Team.

You can select which Viking object box (Life in the Viking Great Army or Life in the Danelaw) and play-based activity (Hnefatafl or Jellinge style jewellery) you would like us to deliver as part of your workshop during the booking process.

Risk assessment

You will be sent a copy of our Discover: Viking North Workshop Risk Assessment once a booking has been made.

Curriculum links

Our Discover: Viking North workshop can be used to cover the following curriculum areas:
